Protection & Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security

What is the PABSS Program?

Protection & Advocacy For Beneficiaries of Social Security

Assisting Social Security
Beneficiaries with Return to Work Issues

SSA has reviewed the following publications for technical accuracy only; however, this should not be considered an official SSA document.

Thinking about Working?

We may be able to give you advocacy assistance with your return-to-work issues.

Are you running into problems?

The Protections & Advocacy for Beneficiaries for Social Security program is a federally funded initiative to assist beneficiaries of Social Security who are trying to return to work or begin to work.

Working now?

How can the PABSS Program help me?

This program is for people with disabilities who receive SSI or SSDI.

The Social Security Administration and California's Medi-Cal program have many "work incentives" that may make it easier for you to work without losing your health benefits.

What should I do if I want to return to work but I am afraid of losing my benefits?

If you want to begin working or return to work but are afraid of what may happen to your benefits, call the PABSS program at:
